Detail of Session.

Detail of Session.

The Board was called to order by President Turpin, there being present, including those who came in later, Messra, Bemett, Burton. Dahney, Ellett, Gifman, Gunst, Lavis, Mann, Masurier, Moncure, Rennolds, Satterfield, Seay, Washer, Whitts, Wood and Turpin, absent, Messra, Adame, Ponahoe and Grundy.

The first business after the opening preliminaries was the reading of the Mayor's message vetoing the ordinance hatherizing the construction of the overhead bridge referred to. The Mayor gave as his reasons the fact that the bridge had been constructed already, that it was not approved by the chief of the first the first developed that the ordinance is the same passed by the old Council, and increding transfers the authority to construct such bridge to another parson, instead of the one originally number. The developed that the ordinance is the same passed by the old Council, and increding transfers the authority to construct such bridge to another parson, instead of the one originally number. The call of committee, and the adverse report of the Finance Committee, on the proposed appropriation to St. Paul's Church Heme was adopted by the Board.

Laid on Table.

The ordinance requiring the closing of pool-rooms at midnight, was, on motion of its patron, Mr. Ellett, isid on the table, in order that it might be taken up and acted on in connection with the ordinance requiring saloons to close at it P. M., and in order to avoid possible conflict and resultant complications. The ordinance providing for the collection of delinquent taxes and passed by the Common Council was recommitted on motion of Mr. Dahnoy, who explaines that there were good reasons for such recommittal, which he would tell the Finance Committee, but which he was not at liberty to state at this time.

Under the call of ordinances, petitions and resolutions several were offered, most of them being minor claims.

Mr. Ellett offered a joint resolution, instructing the Finance Committee to include in the annual appropriation ordinance for 190, the sum of $60,000 for continuing the smooth paving of the road-bod of Grace and Franklin Streets wastward. It went to the Finance Committees.

Mr. Dabney offered an ordinance per-
